What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device (computer, tablet, or mobile) when you visit a website. They help the website remember your preferences and improve your browsing experience.

How We Use Cookies

Galeria Mentis uses cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly (essential cookies)
- Analyze how visitors use our website to improve its performance (analytics cookies)
- Enhance your experience by remembering your preferences (functional cookies)
- Support marketing activities (marketing cookies) — if applicable

Types of Cookies We Use

Cookie Type	Purpose	Example
Essential Cookies	Necessary for basic website functions	Login sessions, cookie consent
Analytics Cookies	Help us understand site usage	Google Analytics
Functional Cookies	Remember your preferences	Language, font size
Marketing Cookies	Track browsing habits for ads (if used)	Google Ads, Facebook Pixel

Managing Cookies

When you first visit Galeria Mentis, you will be asked to choose whether to accept all cookies or only essential ones.

You can change your cookie preferences at any time by adjusting your browser settings or through the cookie consent tool on our website.

Please note, disabling some cookies may affect the functionality and your experience on the site.

Third-Party Cookies

We may use third-party services such as Google Analytics to collect information about how visitors use our site. These third parties may set their own cookies.

For more information on how these third parties use data, please visit their respective privacy policies:
